Taxpayer-provided revenues to Chicago Public Schools have more than doubled since 2005 (in millions of $, 2005 – 2014).

Chicago Public Schools' teacher salaries have grown by almost 80% since 1998.

Chicago Teachers' Pension Fund has just half the money it needs to pay out future pension obligations.

The Chicago Teachers' Pension Fund has just half the money it needs to pay out future pension obligations.